

Snapshot of the MONTH

Chelsea Hand of West Alexandria writes, "Where this rooster is sitting is a good six feet off the ground, with a hay trough, surrounded by a railing, below it. This chick sitting on its back, just old enough to fly, had flown from the ground to the railing, then from there to where the bantam was perched (maybe his Dad?). Then, much to my amazement, the chick hopped onto the rooster's back and settled down for a nap!"

SITTING PRETTY (High, That Is!!!)
